

APB

Your Grain is Wanted

Most of you are familiar with the acronym APB – (All Points Bulletin). In the context of law enforcement, an APB is an alert to keep an eye out for a WANTED person. In the context of Pioneer MarketPointSM resource, an APB stands for an (Active Private Bid). A buyer sends out an APB when they WANT your grain. When buyers WANT your grain, they are usually willing to offer a private bid that is better than their public bid. By being an active Pioneer MarketPointSM resource member, you will ensure that you have access to the best local opportunities to market your grain.

RESOURCE

When a buyer creates an APB, the message goes out in three ways; (1) a text message to your cell phone; (2) an email alert and (3) a screen alert the next time you log into MarketPoint resource. If you receive the text message on your cell phone, and do not have access to your computer, you can call us at 888-393-6471 to check out the APB. Our support associates will answer your questions and can help you respond.

You can ensure that you are getting the best local price, everyday, all with the convenience and mobility that the text messaging service provides. Please contact us at 888-393-6471 to activate your MarketPoint resource account to receive APB's or login to www.marketcrops.com.

As an added bonus for activating, you can sign up for another valuable service at no additional charge. You will be able to receive Commodity Updates three times/day via a text message to your cell phone. The Commodity Updates will give you the current prices for Corn, Beans, and Wheat after the open, mid-day, and at the close of daily trading. This service is a $100/year value.
