

Arun Baral, Regional Director, Asia Pacific

Arun Baral is regional director, Asia Pacific and is responsible for all business operations in Asia Pacific, a fast growing region for Pioneer. He coordinates and leads Pioneer's Asia Pacific Leadership Team, including the business units and functions and is now based in Singapore. He is also a member of the Enterprise Leadership Council.

Arun joined Pioneer in 1992 as a controller in Pioneer's joint venture in Africa and since then, has held various roles of increasing responsibilities in Finance, Strategic Marketing and Business for Pioneer's international business based out of Des Moines.

Arun earned his bachelor's degree in accounting at Delhi University and his Master of Business Administration from Drake University, Iowa. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Arun is married and has one son.