

Steve Waite, Director, Global Supply Chain

Steve Waite is global Supply Chain director for Pioneer. In this role, Steve has responsibility for ensuring best practices and business improvement principles are applied across Pioneer's worldwide supply chain. He is a member of the global commercial business leadership team for Asia Pacific, China, Europe and Africa.

Steve started his career at Pioneer in 1984 with the corporate controller group. During his service at Pioneer, Steve has held several leadership roles including: North America Sales Services director; Information Management director – Operations; North America Sales and Marketing Operations director; vice president, Information Management; and PROaccess integration lead.

Steve earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in finance and MBA from the University of Iowa.

Steve served on the board of the Technology Association of Iowa and has been an active member of the Johnston Community School Foundation board of directors and United Way throughout his career.